History of the Diocese

Pope Gregory XVI established the first Diocese in the State of Indiana at Vincennes in 1834, and the entire state plus the eastern third of Illinois were under its jurisdiction. In 1857 the northern half of the state became the Diocese of Fort Wayne. After 1878 the bishop of Vincennes lived in Indianapolis and in 1898 the diocesan name was changed to Diocese of Indianapolis.

In 1944, the Diocese of Indianapolis was named an archdiocese, and the two suffragan sees were created, the Diocese of Evansville and the Diocese of Lafayette-in-Indiana. The Diocese of Evansville consists of 12 counties in Southwest Indiana, having an area of 5,010 miles. The diocese currently has 45 parishes, divided into 4 deaneries with a Catholic population of 70,000.

Cathedrals of the Diocese

St. Francis Xavier Church

St. Francis Xavier Church occupies land that was granted to the Catholic church by the King of France. The first parish records date from 1749. The present building shown at left was begun by Rev. J.L. Champomier in 1826 and completed by Bishop de la Hailandiere in 1839. St. Francis Xavier Church became the first cathedral church in the state when Pope Gregory XVI established Vincennes as the first diocese in Indiana in 1834. The first four bishops of Vincennes (Brut , de la Hailandi re, Bazin, and De St. Palais) are buried in the crypt below the church. In 1898, the See City was moved to Indianapolis and the diocese became the Diocese of Indianapolis. The church was elevated to the level of Minor Basilica in 1970.

Assumption Church

Assumption Church was founded in Evansville in 1837 by Father Anthony Deydier. It was the first Catholic church in Evansville and the fourth parish established in present diocesan boundaries. The first church was located at Second and Sycamore Streets. In 1871, that building was sold and a new church, shown at left, was built on Seventh Street. In 1944, Pope Pius XII created the Diocese of Evansville with the See City in Evansville. The first bishop, Henry J. Grimmelmsman, dedicated Assumption Church as the Cathedral Church for the new diocese. In 1965 the property was sold to the city of Evansville for their new Civic Center Complex.

Holy Trinity Parish

Holy Trinity Parish was established in 1849 by Father Francis Kutassy and was the second Catholic church in the city of Evansville. In 1950 lightning struck the church and it burned to the ground. The present building, shown at left, was completed in 1957. It served the diocese as the Pro-Cathedral from 1965, when Assumption was torn down, until 1999. Holy Trinity Parish merged with Sts. Mary & John Parish in 2015, and the church building was named an oratory. In 2017, the oratory was relegated to profane but not sordid use, and all remaining pastoral activities were transferred to St. Mary Church.

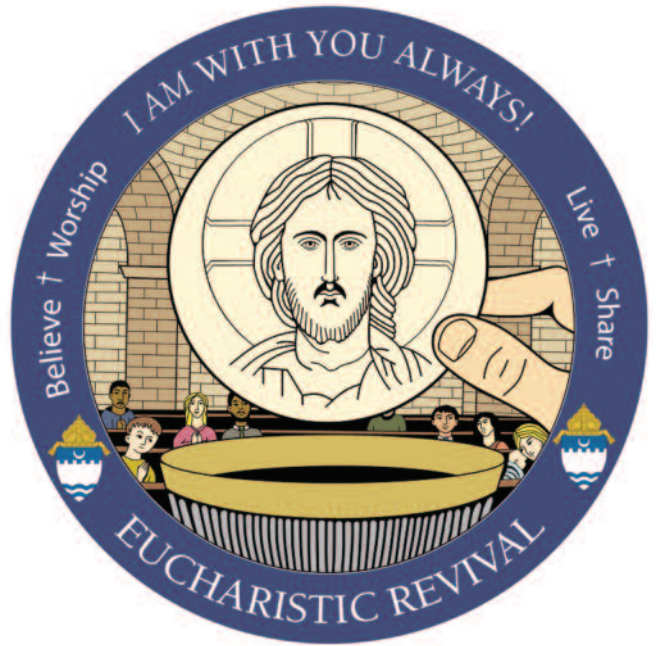

St. Benedict Church

St. Benedict Church was established in 1912 and the first church building was completed in 1914. The new parish was placed under the care of the Benedictine Monks from St. Meinrad by Bishop Chartrand. The present building, shown at left, was completed in 1928. Both Bishop Francis Shea and Bishop Gerald Gettelfinger were ordained and installed here. On April 11, 1999, Bishop Gettelfinger dedicated St. Benedict Church as the Cathedral Church of the Diocese of Evansville.

OUR VOCATIONS GUIDEBOOK

A MESSAGE FROM THE VOCATIONS OFFICE

Greetings in the Lord!

This is the third edition of our Diocesan Vocations Guidebook.

This guidebook is meant to help organize and distribute information about our men in priestly formation and discernment. Thanks for asking for it!

Secondarily, we also hope this book will help share some statistics and trends about priestly vocations in our recent history.

In this Guidebook will also find information about who our seminarians are, what communities have thriving cultures of vocations, where our vocations are coming from, and some helpful programs you may wish to join or support.

Read on to meet the men who have heard a call to discern priesthood and who have had the courage to listen.

Pray for them. Send them a note. Invite them to a parish event. Hang their picture on your classroom or church wall. Perhaps you might know of someone else who is not in this guidebook who might join them next year.

Please reach out with any questions or requests to support. If you find more helpful information we can add or amend, please let us know!

SAVIO

PRAY. FEAST. BEFRIEND. SACRIFICE.

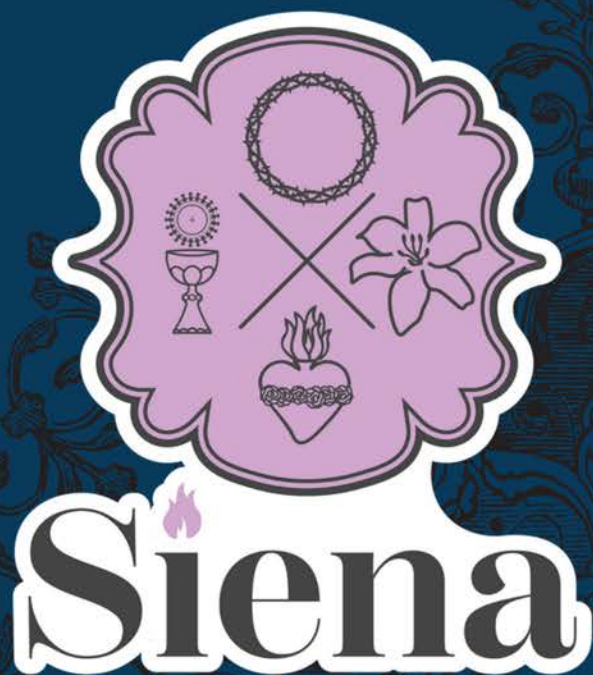

150 years ago, a teenage boy named Dominic Savio made four promises. By PRAYER, FEASTING, FRIENDSHIP & SACRIFICE, Dominic sought to deepen his relationship with Jesus Christ and to discern and follow his vocation. In "SAVIO" we live St. Dominic's promises together.

If you are looking for Faith Formation and Discernment, join us. We would love to have you in our brotherhood.

After four years of building a brotherhood with SAVIO, the Vocations Office is now offering a similar community for young women.

Named after the virgin Doctor of the Church, Saint Catherine of Siena, "SIENA" gathers like-minded high school and middle school girls together. There is one goal: "to become who you were made to be."

Saint Catherine of Siena said that when we are our truest selves, we will set the world on fire. Would you like to join us?

WANT TO GET INVOLVED?

MORE THAN OUR VOCATIONS OFFICE OFFERS

FIAT

Many young women are being called by the Lord to belong totally to his Sacred Heart. Do you know someone who might want to meet others hearing that call? Click "Fiat" on our website for more.

ANNUAL CLERIC CUP

What is more fun than seeing your priests trying to take on the seminarians or even the teenage Savio team? Well, they've won two of the last three years. Join us to cheer them on in 2024!

ALL SAINTS DAY PHOTO CONTEST

Part of becoming holy and growing in virtue is paying attention to holy and virtuous things. Each November 1, the Savio guys compete to dress like Saint statues and paintings. Vote for your favorite on Facebook ("Evansville Vocations").

SERVER TRAINING CAMP

Each summer, every parish pastor is invited to nominate one or two young men from his parish to be formed at a three-day, two-night Server Training Camp run by diocesan seminarians.

EVEN MORE THAT OUR VOCATIONS OFFICE OFFERS

HIGH SCHOOL BIBLE STUDIES

Since 2021, the Father Deydier House residents and Director have broken open the Word of God with male students at Mater Dei High School every Tuesday morning. In 2023, we began one at Reitz Memorial, as well. Come pray and study with us!

FATHER SON RETREAT

A Savio dad asked for more intentional time with his son, and the annual Father Son Retreat at Gasper River was born. This three-day weekend retreat each spring offers time for prayer, competition and prayer for fathers and sons.

TURIN₂₃... AND TURIN₂₅!

Guys in Savio get to know the Saints as we talk about and ask their intercession, but nothing beats getting to walk where they walked. Juniors & Seniors are able to visit the tomb of St. Dominic Savio every other year.

PILGRIMAGE & PAINTBALL

On June 26th, we celebrate the heavenly entry of our first Bishop, Ven. Simon Bruté with a pilgrimage and Mass at his tomb in Vincennes, followed by a celebratory round of paintball, ice skating, or a pool party.

STILL MORE THAT OUR VOCATIONS OFFICE OFFERS

SATURDAY MORNING FUN RUNS

An early morning Mass and 2.5 mile run on a weekend? Bring it on! Another Savio event that brings our teenage guys together for virtue and holiness, usually in the fall.

SERRA CLUB

Laities are the backbone of creating and sustaining a culture of vocations in our diocese. The Serra Club of Evansville meets monthly to pray and discuss ways to support vocations ministries. Contact the Vocations Office for more information.

SAVIO & SIENA T-SHIRTS

Most clubs and organizations give t-shirts away for free. At Savio at Siena, you have to earn it. Complete tasks like 5 days of cold showers, reading a book of the Bible or doing 1000 pushups to earn one!

DISCERNMENT WEEKENDS

Getting to stay at the Father Deydier House helps young men confirm a call to priesthood or to have more clarity in going another route. Discernment Retreats are hosted each fall and spring.

Mass Schedules

Mass Schedules

Mass schedules on the following pages were updated in September 2023.

Please note that schedules may have been changed by the parishes after the Yearbook printing deadlines.

The schedules are grouped by deanery.

Schedules are provided in two forms:

- A grid listing parishes and Mass times, to show the reader available Masses and locations “at a glance.”
- A complete listing by Deanery is provided along with the parish name, address and telephone number.

In some cases, a listing in the grid is preceded by an asterisk (*) to refer the reader to the text, for more information about a particular schedule (for example, schedules changing in summer and winter, or celebrated in a language other than English).

Many churches have telephone answering machines listing weekend sacramental schedules.

Mass schedules are also available at the website of the Diocese of Evansville: www.evdio.org
